

HIGH END® 2010

The Show is ready to go

Our preparations and work on the forthcoming HIGH END 2010 in Munich Germany has arrived at the finish line. Represented by about 800 brands and approx 250 exhibitors, nearly the entire high quality home electronic industry awaits visitors from around the world to this fascinating exhibition. Over the next few weeks, we will prepare several special editions of the newsletter, which deal exclusively to the special highlights of the exhibitors.

The HIGH END Show Guide

Up from March 30th, the new catalogue will be available. As always, the book with 400 pages is a real reference book within our industry and can be ordered online at only 10 EUR plus p+p at our online form on the save secure socket layer form >.
